Author Talk

BARRY DICKINS: ONE PUNCH

Join Barry Dickens as he reflects on the many types of violence affecting everyday life. In his heartfelt exploration, Barry talks to many people impacted by violence, including parents of children who have been killed, professionals in the justice system, and children who live in violent communities. He considers how the world has changed in his lifetime and discusses where we are going as a society.

One Punch is published by Hardie Grant Books and is available to borrow from your local library or for purchase at your local book store.
