FAST VS. SLOW: THE QUESTION OF FAST FASHION

The fast fashion industry is one of the world's largest polluters, with its linear economic model of create-wear-waste. Join an expert panel from A Fitting Connection who believe our attitudes around textile ownership and disposal must change to combat the textile waste crisis. Topics include fast vs. slow fashion, the textile waste problem, what to donate to op-shops, the fate of clothing op-shops don't sell, and where to send unusable textiles. To finish on a positive note – tips on colours and styles to ensure clothing is loved and worn.

ALEX MILLER: A BRIEF AFFAIR

Acclaimed local author Alex Miller discusses his new novel with Prue Mansfield. A tender love story from the bustling streets of China to familiar central Victorian locations, about love in it's many guises, condoned and illicit. Alex says 'Sex is never just sex. There is always more to it: friends, family, trust, betrayal. It is through a brief affair with a stranger that Frances comes to an understanding of what really matters to her'. Deceptively simple and hauntingly beautiful.

LOCAL AND FAMILY HISTORY

DISCOVERING HISTORY: THROWING STONES AND MENDING THEIR WAYS

Presented by Dr Susan Walter.

Historic landscapes are often defined by and created with stone. For millennia, mankind has used stone to alter nature's landscapes for his own purpose, though the work involved is easily overlooked and underestimated. Finding suitable stone is only the beginning. Enjoy some of the quirky stories of historic Bendigo, created when stone, politics and people were all mixed together.

Presented in partnership with BRAC and La Trobe University.
