

Fiesta Fever / Claudia Scott

Colours burst as daylight fades,
Laughter spills through lantern shades.
Rhythms pulse in every street,
Echoing with dancing feet.
Twirling skirts and flashing smiles,
People gather, stay awhile.
Music swirls in perfect grace,
A joyful tune we all embrace.
Spices sizzle, fires gleam,
A feast for eyes, a dreamer's dream.
Sweetened treats and hearty bites,
The fiesta blooms through endless nights.
Drums and guitars, voices soar,
A chorus sung from every door.
Hands clapping, hearts alive,
In the fiesta, we all thrive.
Stars above and flames below,
Feel the warmth, let your spirit flow.
In this night, all are free.
The fiesta lives, in you and me.
